STAT

General Smith has recently had an opportunity to discuss your mobilization status with General Bolling. It was agreed between them that the simplest procedure would be to let your mobilization assignment to G-2 remain unchanged with the understanding that you would be made available to the Central Intelligence Agency at the time you were called on active duty. Since this is a firm agreement, I am sure that you are safe now in advising your unit instructor of this arrangement.

The General still has had no occasion to plan a trip to New York but I will keep in mind that you want to be advised when he does so.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely,

STA
